This update contains important information about our expectations regarding registrants' travel between the airport and the CBD rehearsal venue, as well as information about non-camp accommodation for non-students.

Transport expectations

Arrival procedure

Adelaide is a small city, where key locations are conveniently linked via easily accessible and cheap public transport. In light of this, we'll be expecting registrants to make their own way to the CBD for the first rehearsal at 5 PM on 10 January.

We recognise that this may not be convenient for you if you have accessibility issues, so if you are in genuine need of a lift from the airport, please note this on your registration form when registration opens and we will arrange for someone to receive you. This will be the exception, rather than the rule!

Expect at least 25 minutes to disembark, collect luggage, buy a MetroCard and arrive at the airport bus stop. It would be safe to allow for unforeseen circumstances like a delayed flight.

Most registrants should aim to arrive in Adelaide by 3 PM (even earlier is better) to give yourself plenty of time to get around and for registration.

But if you're attending AIVCC—held outside the rehearsal and social schedule (so you don't miss any of the fun stuff!) from 11 AM on 10 January—the latest bus to arrive in the city (at 10:40 AM) before AIVCC commences at 11:00 AM leaves the airport at 10:12 AM (unless the timetable changes between now and the festival), to make this bus and the meeting on time, you'll need to land before about 9:45 AM.

If you don't know what AIVCC is, there's no need to worry about it and there's certainly no need to attend it. It's only a meeting of the choir presidents, committee members of AICSA our parent organisation, and certain other people who choose to be there because it interests them.

Adelaide Airport

The airport is located 6 km west of the CBD, and during the day, it should take you about 30 minutes to get between the two locations from bus stop to bus stop. Once you've collected your luggage, you'll be on the ground floor of the terminal. Here, you'll find a visitor information booth and the car rental desks. You can also hire a taxi or buy a shuttle bus ticket—we'll just be outlining the public transport method below. A comprehensive guide to transport to and from the airport can be found at www.adelaideairport.com.au/parking-transport/transport-options/.

Adelaide Metro buses

The buses for airport services to the city are called JetExpress \(J1X\) and JetBus \(J1 and J3\). These buses will get you to Currie St, Pulteney St/Hindmarsh Sq and North Tce, all a short walk from the university, and someone in the Information and Tourist Bookings Booth will help you with the timetable. Our public transport system is on Google Maps, so you can check that or see the links if you're unsure.

MetroCards can be purchased from WH Smith Express, just outside the terminal, or single trip tickets can be purchased (cash only, exact change or as close as possible) on the bus itself. You'll need to top up your MetroCard when you purchase it, about $15 should do to start with. Adult fares are $3.50 between 9 AM and 3 PM, and $5.40 otherwise. Interstate students don't get concession rates here.

Getting to camp

Nunyara Conference Centre, where we'll be holding camp, is very close to the Belair station on the Belair train line, and we'll be expecting registrants to get to the campsite via public transport—the train is by far the easiest way to get there. For additional convenience, we will have a truck to take your luggage to camp, so no need to worry about bulky suitcases on public transport—just yourself!

After a morning rehearsal session on Day 2 (11 January) in the CBD, we'll finish at 1 PM. Following a quick lunch, you can catch the 1:31 PM, 1:56 PM or 2:31 PM Belair line trains from Adelaide Railway Station, less than 10 minutes walk from the university or from Rundle Mall. A committee member or helper will be present at Adelaide Railway Station to ensure you get on the correct train. The 2:31 arrives at Belair at 3:09 PM and is the latest train in time for afternoon tea at 3:30 PM at camp, but even that is cutting it fine, pick an earlier train if you can.

Once again, if you have accessibility issues and are in genuine need of a lift to the campsite, note this on your registration form. Car space will be at a premium, so the earlier you make these arrangements, the better!

At the other end, we will be providing lifts between Belair station and Nunyara. It is possible to walk between the station and the campsite, but we don't recommend it in summer!

Non-camp accommodation

If you register as a student chorister, every possible effort will be made to billet you with a host in Adelaide. For others, we cannot guarantee billeting, and we strongly recommend that you look into alternative options for non-camp accommodation. While you are welcome to investigate options such as hotels, Airbnb, hostels, and the like, we've also been looking into some alternatives on your behalf! Book for one night on 10–11 January and five nights on 15–20 January.

St Ann's College (recommended)

We have confirmed that St Ann's College, a residential college of the University of Adelaide, can accommodate you for the duration of the festival.

St Ann's is located at 187 Brougham Place NORTH ADELAIDE and is closely situated to convenient public transport links to the University of Adelaide—you would be looking at a 10–12 minute commute via bus links on Melbourne St and Sir Edwin Smith Avenue. If you require more details, check out the public transport information available on Google Maps or the Adelaide Metro site.

Rates and other details are attached to this bullsheet.

The college kitchen is not open during the summer holiday period, but there are corridor kitchens where guests can prepare simple breakfasts such as cereal and coffee.

If you are interested, please directly message Myri Kyriacou at marketing@stannscollge.edu.au or call the college office on 08 8267 1478 to make a booking.

We strongly recommend booking as early as possible as many colleges will be accommodating visitors for the Tour Down Under, which will be held concurrently during the festival.

Aquinas College (alternative)

We have also confirmed that Aquinas College can also accommodate festival registrants. Aquinas is located at 1 Palmer Place NORTH ADELAIDE and is also closely situated to convenient public transport links to the University of Adelaide via bus links on King William Road, as well as being very close to our concert venue at St Peter's Cathedral.

However, Aquinas is much more popular with Tour Down Under attendees as it is very close to the city loop of the event, and you will need to book as early as possible to ensure you can stay there. It is also less convenient for public transport than St Ann's is. We strongly recommend preferentially booking at St Ann's, and only booking at Aquinas if you require a double or twin room and can't find any other comparable options.

You can find indicative pricing (accurate for 2018 but subject to change for 2019) at www.aquinas.edu.au/forms/casual-vacancy-form/. You can also make a booking there. All rates include a continental breakfast.

Payment is required in advance or is payable to the duty warden or reception at check-in. Please arrange to pay during office hours. Payments are accepted by cash or credit card during office hours (1% surcharge applies to all credit card payments American Express is not accepted). Rooms should be vacated by 10am on the day of departure and luggage may be left behind the desk in the front foyer. A $20 cleaning deposit is payable when checking in. To reclaim this deposit rooms must be vacuumed, tidied, hired bedding returned and bins emptied before visitors leave.

KEYS:

You will be issued with a room key and proximity tag. When you leave, please return them to the office during the above hours. If you are leaving outside office hours, please drop them in the key slot in the office door. DO NOT LEAVE KEYS AT THE FRONT DESK. We charge a $70 fee to replace lost keys. If you have locked yourself out of your room, please see the office staff during office hours. Out of hours, you can contact the warden on duty on 0407 711 247.

FRONT DOOR:

This is locked at all times. It can be opened by using your room key. Please note that visitor proxies are to provide access to the grounds after hours using the pedestrian gates. They do not open the front door.

TELEPHONES:

There are no public telephones available within the College. The office telephone is not available to visitors. Callers can telephone you direct in your room by dialling 8239 followed by your extension number, which can be provided to you by the office staff or warden on duty. The telephone in your room is for making internal calls only.

LAUNDRY:

There are two laundries located in Lower Ground Symon and Wood Wing, provided with coin-operated washers and driers. Cups of washing powder can be purchased from the wardens. Please report any problems as they arise. There are clothes lines in the laundries as well as the courtyard. An iron and ironing board are located in Lower Ground Symon kitchen. Please do not wash or dry your clothes in bathrooms or study-rooms.

KITCHENS:

Small kitchens are located in each corridor for visitor use. Most kitchens have a fridge, microwave and basic equipment for making snacks and hot drinks only. Please keep the kitchens clean and tidy, and remove rubbish as bins are filled.

IMPORTANT:

Whenever possible keep kitchen doors closed and fans on when cooking as there are very sensitive smoke detectors in the corridors. Don't cook in DRM kitchen. Close your bathroom door when showering as steam can set off the alarm.

A fire alarm results in 3 fire engines and some irate firemen at the front door.

PARKING:

Please park in the street outside. There is no Parking available on College grounds.

SMOKING:

Smoking is not permitted inside the College buildings or within ten metres of them.

NO DRUGS ON COLLEGE PREMISES

ELECTRICITY:

Please turn off all lights, electrical devices and heater/air conditioner before leaving your room.

COMMON ROOMS:

The TV/DVD room in Wilcox can be used at any time.

PLEASE TREAT ALL COLLEGE PROPERTY WITH RESPECT.

SECURITY:

St Ann's has a fool-proof security system. This needs your assistance to be properly maintained. The front door is locked at all times and your room key will also unlock the front door. To keep thieves out never prop open doors around the College. If you tamper with your door lock, you diminish your personal security and do so at your own risk.

FIRE ALARMS:

There is a fire alarm in each room. Our fire alarms are very sensitive and respond to smoke, heat and steam. Please remember to always close the bathroom door when showering to prevent steam from setting off the fire alarms. In the event of a fire alarm (bells will ring in each corridor) please ensure that you and all the other residents in your corridor evacuate - they may be asleep or in the bathroom. Assemble on the tennis court until an all-clear is given. Fire escape routes are given on the map on the back of each room door.

False alarms cost upwards of $800 a time which the person responsible is required to pay.

EMERGENCIES:

Please report any breakages and plumbing or electrical faults to the College office as soon as possible. Urgent matters that arise after hours may be reported by phoning the warden on duty; warden's name, room number and phone number will be found on the door next to front desk.

Wardens:

These are College students. Their responsibilities are to look after the College out of office hours. If you have any problems out of office hours see them! Their telephone number is 0407 711 247.

RUBBISH:

As mentioned previously, rubbish must be removed from our rooms and the kitchen areas. Rubbish should be deposited in the very large bin at the rear of the College.

We hope you enjoy your stay at St Ann's College!
